

Blythe Spragg

Paralegal

T 514.375.2671

bspragg@lcm-boutique.ca

Areas of Expertise

- Civil and commercial litigation
- Class actions (Health law and policy, product liability, securities, consumer law, etc.)
- Injunctions, seizures
- Product liability
- Access to information
- Competition law
- Real estate and commercial leasing

Blythe Spragg assists lawyers in preparing complex cases for trial. In addition to reviewing documents for pertinence, she organizes a files' documents and exhibits. She also drafts proceedings, summarizes transcripts and ensures the efficient organization of files from start to finish.

Ms. Spragg has demonstrated a keen interest in technology and is experienced in working with various litigation support software. During a secondment at an international company in the aerospace industry, Ms. Spragg gained experience with electronic document disclosure ("E-discovery") and the principles of preservation of documents in light of a litigation ("litigation holds").

Education

D.E.C. (Paralegal Technology), O'Sullivan College of Montreal, 2011

B.A., Western University, 2008

Professional Associations

- Canadian Association of Paralegals