Launch of LCM Attorneys Inc., a litigation boutique law firm

Montréal, March 3, 2014 – The founders of LCM Attorneys Inc. are pleased to announce the creation of a new litigation boutique in Montreal. The firm will offer services in all areas of civil and commercial litigation, with particular emphasis on class actions, as well as in public and administrative law.

LCM Attorneys Inc.'s five founding partners are Bernard Amyot, Ad. E., Sébastien C. Caron, Patrick Ferland, David Joanisse and Dominique Ménard. Five other attorneys will be joining the team, as well as two paralegals and renowned counsel Max Bernard, Ad. E., who will continue his practice as a pleader and as an arbitrator. Until recently, all were part of the litigation department of Heenan Blaikie.

"Our objective is simple: to respond even more effectively to our clients' needs by offering them first-rate legal services and strategic advice at competitive rates", said Bernard Amyot. "In fact, our clients have encouraged us to create this boutique and have expressed their continuing confidence by entrusting us with their most complex and important files."

"For us, teamwork is fundamental", said David Joanisse. "In creating this law firm, we wanted not only to assemble a talented team of attorneys with proven and complementary expertise, but to build a solid team of dynamic professionals dedicated to combining their energy in order to achieve our clients' objectives".

The offices of LCM Attorneys Inc. are located at 1000, de la Gauchetière West, suite 1510, in Montreal.
